48 HOURS: "Ransom" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the mysterious 2008 disappearance of Robert Wiles, the son of millionaire business owner Tom Wiles, who received an e-mail ransom note demanding $750,000 for the safe return of the 26-year-old, who had been working at the family business, National Flight Services in Lakeland, Florida, an aircraft maintenance company with offices and clients worldwide. On April 3, Tom Wiles opened an e-mail from his son Robert. It was a ransom demand signed, "Group X", and asked for Tom to put $750,000 in Robert's office if he ever wanted to see his son alive again. Robert was last seen by his co-worker Stobert (Toby) Holt on April 1, 2008, and the kidnappers set a deadline of April 8th to receive the money. Tom involved the FBI with the ransom note, and when Tom arrived in Florida they set up a sting operation in Robert's office to try to find out who the kidnappers were. After monitoring a box placed in Robert's office filled with coffee that weighed the same as $750,000, days started to pass by with no one entering the room. Toby Holt, Operations Manager, was handpicked by Tom to assist the FBI in monitoring Robert's office. There were no leads in the case until agents tracked Robert's phone records to see which cell towers were used, and this lead them to subpoena the Florida Turnpike Authority to view video of toll booths on the Polk Parkway. When Tom viewed the tape, he recognized Toby Holt's car pass through a toll. In the picture Toby's right arm looks to be in a position of holding a phone, and when agents went through Holt's phone record, it showed his number was not in use while going through the tolls, piquing the FBI's interest. This is when the investigation, which had been focused on the Wiles' family and an alcoholic ex-employee, Steve Lindsey, turned solely towards Toby Holt. When agents brought Holt in for questioning they determined his whereabouts on the night of Robert's disappearance were unsubstantiated and he lied when he said he didn't have any guns in his car when they found a handgun under the hood. Moreover, Holt was cheating on his wife with at least a dozen women. The FBI called in reinforcements to help move along the case with local police and detectives, and this group discovered Holt and Robert's phones were traveling together to make for a good circumstantial case. On December 19, 2009 agents arrested Toby Holt for extortion, kidnapping, and first-degree murder. 48 HOURS MYSTERY spoke with Holt while he was in South County Jail through television cameras and monitors, and he maintained his innocence. The trial opened in January 2012 and the prosecution used phone records as evidence in addition to work e-mails, showcasing a contentious relationship between Robert and Holt as a motive. Holt's lawyer said he was taking a sip of Diet Dr. Pepper when the photo was taken of him going through the toll booth, not using a phone; he pinned everything on ex-worker Steve Lindsey. However, Steve Lindsey died of lung cancer while the case was under investigation. The jury spent four hours deliberating and the judge read, "...the defendant is guilty of manslaughter." Holt was sentenced to 30 years in prison for manslaughter and extortion. Robert's body has yet to be found. On Screen Text Graphics: Toby Holt is appealing his conviction based on insufficient evidence. Holt is currently scheduled for release in 2039. He will be 72 years old. Interviewed: Tom Wiles, Robert's father; Audra Wiles, Robert's sister; Pamela, Robert's mother; Tierney Wiles, Robert's sister; David Palmisano, Robert's friend; Jim Bucenell, FBI Special Agent; Dan Kelly, FBI Special Agent; Janie Beard, Robert's barber; Joel Valle, airplane engine repair company owner; Tommy Ray, Florida Special Agent; Cass Castillo, prosecutor; Howardene Garrett, Assistant Public Defender; Stobert (Toby) Holt, NFS worker; Beverly Holt, Toby's ex-wife. 48 HOURS: "Shattered Dreams" (10:00-11:00p) - A report about David Ditto, a husband accused of killing his wife, Katrina Ditto and possibly drugging his children. In March 2011, David Ditto called 911 to say his wife had fallen down a flight of stairs in their Mira Mesa, California home and slammed her head on a tile floor. First responders were suspicious of Ditto's version of what happened because of the extent of Katrina's injuries and the positioning of the body. Ditto said he tried to administer CPR, which they also doubted. Katrina Ditto died two days later. The Medical Examiner ruled that Katrina was beaten and strangled; Ditto was charged with murder. Investigators discovered that the image of the couple's seemingly perfect marriage was a facade. Katrina met David while he was on a vacation in Mexico in 1993, married him and moved to the U.S. knowing little English. They had two children. She had written letters to her mother in Mexico, detailing the fact that David was very controlling and she often wondered why she had married him. She had recently tried to break free, getting a job and having control of her own money for the first time in her life. Investigators also questioned why the teenage children, asleep in the home that night, never woke up, given the number of people in the house that night. They suspected the children had been drugged. David Ditto took the stand during the trial, giving emotional testimony; however, he was found guilty. On screen text graphic: David Ditto will be eligible for parole in 2037. He will be 70 years old. To this day, Ditto insists he's innocent and has hired a new defense attorney to file an appeal. Four months before Katrina Ditto's death, David took out a life insurance policy for his family in the event of his wife's death, he would have collected $150,000. He never did. Interviewed: David Ditto; Pat Doughty and Maggie Cascio, Ditto's mother and sister; Silvia Benitez, Katrina Ditto's mother; Lisa Chandler, first responder; Jonathan Mota, co-worker of Katrina Ditto; Claudine Ruiz, San Diego prosecutor; JC Smith, San Diego homicide detective; Dr. Othon Mena, San Diego City Medical Examiner; Keith Rutman, Ditto's defense attorney; jurors Francine Foman-Maisel, Christine Ellis, Patricia Woelk. Crime

48 HOURS: "The Perfect Family" - Bernie Pyne returned home one day in May 2011 with his young daughter to find his wife Ruth in the garage, brutally beaten and stabbed to death. To outsiders, the Pyne's appeared to be an all-American family. Bernie Pyne was a successful auto engineer who, with his wife, had raised a seemingly happy family in Highland Township, a suburb of Detroit, Michigan. They had two children, the oldest, Jeffrey, was his high school's valedictorian and on his way to college. After Ruth was murdered, police learned the Pyne's were not as perfect as portrayed. The investigation immediately turned to those who lived with Ruth, and they learned Ruth had some psychiatric issues, including arguments and confrontations about taking her medications. Investigators also learned Ruth and Bernie's marriage was fractured, and Bernie had had an affair. They also found Ruth's relationship with their son, Jeffrey, was strained. Ruth's sister Linda Jarvie thought Bernie was responsible for the murder, and given his affair, Bernie understood the suspicions, but he had an ironclad alibi backed by his boss and four witnesses, ruling him out as a suspect. Five months into the investigation, Jeffrey Pyne was charged with his mother's murder. Police had circumstantial evidence against Jeffrey -- blisters on his hands, lies about gardening at his neighbor's home and his detached demeanor when authorities told him what had happened to his mother. In addition, there was no sign of Ruth being sexually assaulted and no sign of a break-in. Before the case went to the jury, Prosecutor John Skrzynski asked the judge for another option for the jurors; a charge of second-degree murder, rather than the original charge of first-degree murder. Skrzynski believed it would make it easier for the jury to convict him. Jeffrey's defense attorney, James Champion, argued against it, but the judge granted the motion. After three days of jury deliberations the verdict was announced, and Jeffrey Pyne was found guilty of second-degree murder. On Screen Text Graphics: Jeffrey Pyne will be sentenced on January 29th. Under Michigan law, he could receive as much as life in prison with parole or as little as a year. Interviewed: Greg Glover, Oakland County Det. Sgt.; Dave Hendrick, Oakland County Det. Sgt.; Bernie Pyne, father of defendant; Linda Jarvie, Ruth Pyne's sister; James Champion, defense attorney. (C: Tracy Smith - P: Liza Finley, Marc B. Goldbaum, Ruth Chenetz)

48 HOURS: "Picture Perfect: The Trial of Jodi Arias" - An updated report on Jodi Arias, accused of murdering her boyfriend Travis Alexander in 2008. The murder was first reported on in 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Picture Perfect" (OAD: 03/07/09). In that report, Arias initially told police she knew nothing of the killing, then later blamed it on masked intruders. Now she has admitted her involvement in his murder, but claims it was in self-defense. Travis Alexander, a successful businessman and devout Mormon, was found murdered in his Mesa, Arizona home. He had been shot and then repeatedly stabbed. For a little more than a year, he had been involved with Jodi Arias, an aspiring photographer. She adopted his Mormon beliefs, which forbid premarital sex -- but they did become sexually involved. They supposedly ended their relationship when Jodi found out that Travis was interested in other women. Police investigation of the murder scene recovered a digital camera with electronically dated, sexually explicit photos Travis and Jodi had taken of themselves -- and photos of Travis during the time he was being killed or soon after. Further police investigation resulted in the arrest of Jodi Arias on charges of first-degree murder. Now, portions of her interviews with 48 HOURS from 2008 are being used in her death penalty trial by both the prosecution and the defense. Last Thursday (01/17/13), the prosecution rested. On screen text graphic: The trial of Jodie Arias is expected to conclude sometime next month. She faces the death penalty. Includes interviews with Jodi Arias; Chris and Sky Hughes, friends of Travis Alexander; Samantha and Steve Alexander, Travis' sister and brother; Travis' friends Taylor Searle, Brint Hiatt, and Aaron Mortenson; Esteban Flores, detective, Mesa Police Department; Deanna Reid, former girlfriend to Travis Alexander. 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "An Officer and a Hero" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the October 5, 2009 botched robbery and home invasion that left off-duty St. Louis Police Officer Isabella Lovadina and her then-boyfriend, firefighter Nick Koenig grievously wounded and his cousin Gina Stallis dead. Lovadina and Koenig were taking an EMT class together in October 2009 in St. Louis, Missouri, and after class one evening they went to Nick's grandmother's house to study. When Nick walked Isabella to her car at 12:30am, she placed her gun and bulletproof vest inside and went to give Nick a hug goodbye. Two males approached them with guns drawn demanding whatever they had, and when Isabella said she didn't have anything they pointed to Nick's grandmother's house and directed them to go inside. Isabella and Nick were forced to their knees in the hallway upon entry. One of the gunmen, described as wearing a red hoodie with two gold teeth, went upstairs where Ida Rask, Nick's grandmother, his Aunt Rose, his cousin Gina Stallis and her two young sons were sleeping. The gunman forced Gina to carry a large TV down the stairs and the three women were then pressured to kneel next to Nick and Isabella while the two boys were left alone. Isabella decided to lunge up against the gunman described as wearing a black hoodie and started fighting with him, while Nick fought with the other man. Rose ran out the front door and started approaching neighbor's houses for help, with no avail. Shots rung out and Isabella was struck by the man in the black hoodie five times, point blank; Nick was shot three times, and Gina suffered shots that killed her. Gina's son Sam, 9-years old at the time, called 911 and soon after police and EMT's arrived. The intruders ran away before cops arrived. Isabella and Nick were rushed to the hospital. Nick had a bullet stuck in the back of his neck, too close to the spinal cord to operate on. A short time after the robbery a man checked into the ER at Barnes Hospital across town with a gunshot wound in his hand, and the ER technician tending to him noticed his gold teeth, the red hoodie covered in blood, and told the cops immediately. Police arrived at Barnes Hospital and arrested Ledale Nathan when they identified his red hoodie, and chased the man in the black hoodie, Mario Coleman, into a park and arrested him. Police found Nick's grandmother's jewelry and a black gun tossed in the park nearby. After Isabella identified the two men they were charged with first degree murder. Nathan was 16-years old at the time of the incident but he stood trial as an adult and the jury found him guilty. Coleman's trial was next and he was also found guilty of murder. Rose Whitrock has taken custody of her grandchildren. Two and a half years after the incident Nick was in a car accident and soon after he coughed up the bullet that was lodged in his cervical spine. Isabella retired from the Police Department and at her final roll call Mayor Francis G. Slay of St. Louis proclaimed February 6, 2012 as Police Officer Isabella Lovadina day. On Screen Text Graphics: Mario Coleman and Ledale Nathan Jr. were sentenced to life without the possibility of parole. Nick hopes to one day finish the class he started and become an EMT. On screen text graphic for the 01/26/13 rebroadcast: Mario Coleman and Ledale Nathan Junior were sentenced to life without the possibility of parole. Crime

48 HOURS: "Crazy Love" (10:00-11:00p) - A report on the investigation into the 2009 murder of millionaire Ben Novack, Jr. in Rye Brook, New York. Novack was the son of Bernice and Benjamin Novack, Sr., who once owned the famed Miami hotspot, The Fontainebleau Hotel, where the rich and famous came to stay in the 1960s. When the family lost their fortune and the hotel in the 70's, Benji was inspired to start his own business planning conferences for corporate clients, which earned him millions. Friends described him as a brat who ruled his empire by fear and who had a lot of enemies. Police suspected his wife Narcy, but did not have enough evidence to charge her; then they received a letter, in Spanish, which stated that Narcy Novack and her brother Cristobal Veliz were responsible for the crime. Police believed that Veliz had hired two men, Alejandro Garcia and Joel Gonzalez to kill Benji Novack. After arresting the two, Gonzalez implicated Novack and Veliz, along with Garcia. They were arrested on murder charges. A year later, reporter Julie Brown began looking into the circumstances of Bernice Novack's death, said to be from a fall. Convinced she had discovered a murder, she took her findings to the Fort Lauderdale police department. And as investigators were making a deal with Alejandro Garcia to testify against Narcy and Cristobal, he revealed he had also been hired to attack Bernice. Novack and Veliz were once again charged with murder. The motive: Narcy Novack knew Benji was having an affair and the pre-nuptial agreement only guaranteed her $65,000 in the event of a divorce. She had to kill Benji and his mother to get all the money. On screen text graphic: Narcy Novack and her brother Cristobal Veliz were sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. Crime

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "The Stranger You Know" (8:00-9:00p) - a report about Marti Hill, who was savagely beaten in her Prairie Village, Kansas home -- and her attacker, who refuses to say why. Hill did not show up for work one day in September 2010, and her co-workers grew concerned when she did not answer texts or phone calls. Police were summoned after Hill's boss drove to her home and found her car still in the driveway. She was found by police, at the bottom of the basement steps, barely breathing and covered in blood. Believing she was dying, Prairie Village Police Officer Bill Baldwin tried to coax out of her who was behind the vicious attack. Doctors were not sure that she would survive; she was beaten and her throat slashed open. They spent hours treating her. Police found out that Marti was a workaholic, and if she was not working, she was at home. Her ex-husband was ruled out as a suspect. Hill's mother alerted police towards Brian Pennington, a construction worker whom both she and Marti had hired to do work. Police questioned him and became suspicious, but needed to hear Marti's side of the story. They soon learned she was recovering and able to talk to police. She confirmed to police that Brian Pennington had attacked her; he was arrested for attempted first-degree murder. Frustrating to police was the fact that Pennington apparently had absolutely no motive. However, they found that he had a record of over sixty contacts with law enforcement officers, including several domestic violence incidents involving women. During the preliminary hearing, Pennington eventually agreed to a plea deal; the only issue would be how long he would be held in the Kansas State prison system. It took months, but finally a twenty-eight-and-a-half year prison sentence was agreed upon. To this day, no one knows why Pennington attacked Marti Hill. Onscreen text graphic: We wrote to Brian Pennington to ask why he attacked Marti Hill. He did not respond. Marti has created a website to help women recover from traumatic events. Interviewed: Marti Hill; Tom Mai, Marti's boss; co-workers Stephanie Scheibler, Jan Schul; Dr. Harry Wilkins III, trauma surgeon; Prairie Village Police Officer Bill Baldwin; Prairie Village Police Detectives Luke Roth and Jason Wakefield; Shirley Roth, Marti's mother; Mackenzie Hill, Marti's daughter; Cami Gill and Monica Gill, Marti's sisters; Dr. Kim Poecker; Prosecutor Vanessa Riebli. 48 HOURS: "Desperate Measures" - a report about a wealthy married couple, Dennis and Merna Koula, who were found shot dead in their Wisconsin home, and the questions that arose surrounding the circumstances of their May 2010 murder. Though elderly, both continued to work, Dennis at a pharmacy and Merna as a teacher, even after Dennis sold his car dealership and the chain of pharmacies he owned. Eric Koula and his sister, Cindy Cowell, each with families of their own, were close to their parents. Both received money from their wealthy father: Eric received hundreds of thousands of dollars to start a career as a day trader, but Cindy received less compared to her brother. At first, police believed that the couple was targeted for assassination. Days later, police received their first clue: neighbor Steve Burgess, the president of a local bank, had received death threats. The police initially suspected a case of mistaken identity when, after checking an Internet map site, the Koulas' house was identified as the Burgess residence. A timeline was established, and a time of death was determined from the last keystroke Merna Koula made on her computer. Police kept this information a secret. The lead regarding possible mistaken identity turned into a dead end and attention turned to the Koula children. Cindy Cowell and her husband had alibis. Then Eric Koula claimed to have received a shocking note in the mail saying "fixed you". Following protocol, police examined bank records and discovered that Eric Koula had received a check from his father and had cashed it after their deaths. Investigators started to take a closer look at Eric's entire story. They discovered that Eric was in financial trouble. Helen Van Roo, a co-worker of Dennis, told police that Dennis had told her that he was going to stop giving his children money. Eric Koula became the target of the investigation and was eventually arrested and charged with two counts of first-degree intentional homicide. In June 2012, the trial began. Eric Koula was found guilty of murdering his parents and the additional charge of forging his father's name on a check. Onscreen Text Graphic: Eric Koula received nothing from his parents' estate. His children have filed suit to claim a portion of the money that should have been their father's. Interviewed: Eric Koula and Cindy Cowell, the Koula children; John Christophersen, former special agent, Wisconsin Department of Justice; Christine Koula, Eric's wife and Dexter Koula, Eric's son; Helen Van Roo, Dennis Koula's co-worker; Tim Gruenke, prosecutor; Gary Freyberg, co-prosecutor; Jim Koby, lead defense attorney; Keith Belzer, defense attorney. Crime

48 HOURS: "Honor and Dishonor" - a report on Sgt. Brent Burke, who was court-martialled for the 2007 murders of Tracy Burke, his estranged wife and his former mother-in-law, Karen Comer. Four civilian trials, with no physical evidence, had already led to three mistrials and a hung jury; but the military decided to move forward with action under the uniform code of military justice. Tracy Burke and Karen Comer were discovered shot to death in Comer's Rineyville, Kentucky home. When it was discovered that Tracy was in the process of going through a divorce, Sgt. Brent Burke was taken into custody and booked for murder. There was little physical evidence and no murder weapon, but during an interview, Eion Burke, a young child of four, said that Sgt. Burke was the killer. When charges were dropped and he was released from jail, Kentucky State Police spoke to the Army and they came to the same conclusion: a case for murder, this time to be tried by the Army's Judge Advocate General's Corps (JAG) because Burke on active duty at Fort Campbell when the crimes were committed. He would face a court martial trial which is very different from a civilian court trial -- there is always a verdict and never a hung jury. The trial commenced and the JAG prosecution team was able to present physical evidence -- a tiny piece of glass taken off of Burke's coat, which was similar to the shattered glass door at the crime scene. The panel decided that Sgt. Burke was guilty and that he would serve a life sentence without parole. He would also be dishonorably discharged and stripped of his rank. Onscreen text graphic: Tracy Burke's children visit each other regularly. According to military law, Brent Burke will get an automatic appeal. Interviewed: JAG prosecution team members: Lt. Colonel Matthew Calarco, Major Sondra Smith, Captain Janae Lepir; U.S. Army Defense Attorney Nathan Brown; JAG attorney Major Rebecca Kliem; Kentucky State Police Detective Larry Walker; Kentucky State Police Investigator Mark Gillingham; Tracy Burke's father and step-mother David and Gractia Wilburn; Tracy Burke's sister-in-law Hillary Wilburn; defense attorneys Chris Davenport and David Broderick; Brent Burke's parents Stan and Irene Burke; Master Sergeant Michelle Kerstetter, Karen Comer's daughter. Crime

48 HOURS: "The Accuser" (9:00-10:00p) - a followup to "Dream Killer" (OAD: 02/18/06) and "The Lost Night" (OAD: 03/26/11). Correspondent Erin Moriarty and the 48 HOURS team have been investigating the murder of sports editor Kent Heitholt and the bizarre circumstances that have put Ryan Ferguson in prison for the crime. Heitholt was found bludgeoned and strangled in 2001. Two years later, police got a tip that Charles Erickson had told a friend that he and Ryan Ferguson may have committed the crime because they were out drinking the night of the murder and had decided to rob someone, but his memory of the incident was foggy. Based on Erickson's confession, both were arrested and tried for murder. During the trial, Erickson offered key details in his testimony that were not part of his initial confession. Both were found guilty. Ryan Ferguson received a forty year sentence. Ferguson's father's unceasing efforts to prove his son's innocence led to the discovery of evidence contradicting Erickson's story. Then Jerry Trump, a trial witness, recanted his testimony. With the assistance of attorney Kathleen Zellner, a new hearing was secured. Then Erickson's story changed again. He agreed to speak exclusively to 48 HOURS to reveal new details about how his confession put both men in prison. He said he has lied before and exonerated Ryan Ferguson, but his new version of the story also had its problems. Jerry Trump said he felt pressured to lie during the trial and was haunted by his testimony. The appeal commenced. It was denied; the judge sided with the Missouri attorney general and said that Erickson was far more credible seven years ago than he is today. The conviction stands. On screen text graphic: Kathleen Zellner has appealed this latest decision. It's Ryan Ferguson's thirteenth attempt to overturn his conviction. Interviewed: Ryan Ferguson; his father, Bill Ferguson; the accused Chuck Erickson; sports writer Michael Boyd; janitor/witness Shawna Ornt; attorney Kathleen Zellner; forensic pathologist Dr. Larry Blum. 03/02/13 Crime 48 HOURS: "The Usual Suspect" - a report about the death of Tina Caronna, a Memphis, Tennessee woman with a doting husband and a garage full of cars who disappeared in 2008 and after two days, was found dead in the back seat of her Chevrolet Avalanche. The initial suspicion was carjacking; the only thing certain was homicide. Tina and her husband Joe led a charmed life: both with successful finance careers and a lifestyle that included cars, cruises and casinos. Joe accompanied Tina everywhere; but that meant less time for Tina with her mother and the two became estranged. Law enforcement officials thought the crime scene had been staged; Jerry Hathaway, Joe's friend and alibi, began to suspect that too. His suspicions were raised when he learned that the Avalanche was found on a dead-end street not far from where the couple's automobile storage unit was located and he also noticed one too many cars parked at the Caronna's house. As the investigation continued, financial fraud and a secret affair on Joe's part were discovered. Investigators asked Joe's mistress, Becky Black, to wear a wire when meeting with Joe, but doubted that the affair was the motive for the crime. They learned about a home the Caronna's were planning to buy. Prosecutors believed that Caronna did not want Tina or the bank looking into his finances: his business was a house of cards and he was scamming people, including Tina and his closest friends. Joe disappeared, eventually surrendered and was charged with first-degree murder. Four years later, the trial commenced: Joe Caronna was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. On-screen text graphic: This week, Joe Caronna pleaded guilty to four of the 57 federal charges of fraud, embezzlement and money laundering. Caronna could face an additional 50 years for the federal charges added to his murder conviction. Interviewed: Shelby County prosecutor Tom Henderson; prosecution team members Karen Cook and Danielle McCollum; Tina Caronna's son Todd Gray and her mother Clara Murphy; friends of the couple: Cathy and Matt Struna, Gary and Pat Hathaway; Joe's mistress Becky Black; Joe's friend Patricia Turner; jury members Jeanna, Ron and Amy (no last names available). 03/09/13 Crime 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Three Days Before Christmas" (9:00-10:00p) - the story of sisters Linae and Tricia Tiede who in December 1990, were held hostage by two men -- Von Lester Taylor and Edward Steven Deli. Taylor and Deli invaded the family cabin in Oakley, Utah and shot their mother, father and grandmother. The sisters owe their lives to their quick-thinking uncle, Randy Zorn, and their heroic father, Rolf, whose fierce determination gave him the super-human strength needed to ignore his own pain and save his daughters. The Tiede family had gone to spend Christmas at the family cabin. Sisters Linae and Tricia Tiede, only twenty and sixteen years old respectively, were forced to witness the murders of their mother and grandmother. They also planned to burn down the home and take the sisters hostage. The sisters drove the men on snowmobiles past their Uncle Randy, who realized something was dreadfully wrong. His brother, Rolf, though wounded, was somehow able to get on a snowmobile and alert Randy as to what had happened and Randy called 911. The police caught Taylor and Deli and rescued the girls. Taylor and Deli were charged with the murders, aggravated kidnapping, arson and the high-speed chase. Taylor eventually pled guilty to two counts of capital murder. He opted to go before a jury instead of a judge, and was sentenced to death for the two murders. Deli went to trial. The sisters testified at the trial, as did their father, whom Deli had not realized had survived. Deli was convicted of second degree murder, with no option for the death penalty because of a jury member holdout. Today, the family continues to return to the cabin, enjoying their life there. In November 2008, Rolf Tiede died from cancer. On screen text graphic: Von Lester Taylor, sentenced to death for two murders, has been fighting for his own life ever since. He remains on death row, appealing his case. Included interviews with sisters Linae Tiede and Tricia Tiede; their uncle, Randy Zorn; Joseph Offert, lead investigator; Brad Wilde, patrol deputy; their aunt, Claudia Tidwell Nelson; Thomas Brunker, assistant attorney general; Nathan Coats, Linae's husband. 48 HOURS: "Cold as Ice" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on a 55-year-old cold case, in which a childhood memory of a friend's murder was the key to solving the case of the death of 7-year-old Maria Ridulph, from Sycamore, Illinois. In 1957, while playing in the snow with Maria Ridulph, eight-year-old Kathy Chapman went home for mittens. When she returned, Maria was nowhere to be found. Both girls had been talking to a man who called himself "Johnny"; a frantic search failed to locate Maria. The FBI took over the case but when her body was found five months later, the Illinois State Police took over the case, but it went cold. Almost fifty years later, Jeanne Tessier's mother, a Sycamore neighbor, made a shocking deathbed confession: her son, John Tessier, was Maria's killer and she urged her daughter to contact the authorities. Jeanne Tessier contact the FBI and the Sycamore Police. Her brother appeared to have had an alibi and had passed a polygraph test. Both agencies chose not to investigate. Ten years later, Jeanne contacted the Illinois State Police. During the course of the investigation, long buried sexual secrets of the Tessier family came to light. Maria's playmate, now a 61-year-old grandmother, identified a photo of John Tessier as "Johnny", who is now a 72-year-old former policeman from Seattle, Washington, and now known as Jack McCullough. He was arrested and charged with murder. There was little or no physical evidence in the crime; prosecutors chose to charge McCullough with a different crime: the rape of his sister, fifty-five years ago. They felt they had a better chance of conviction. But the prosecutor had promised Jeanne Tessier that he would never pursue a rape trial without her consent. With no physical evidence to back up her story, Jeanne Tessier felt betrayed by prosecutor Clay Campbell and feared her word would not be enough for a conviction. McCullough was found not guilty. Five months later, the murder trial commenced. Jack McCullough felt confident he would be acquitted in this mostly circumstantial case too. When both sides rested, the judge delivered his decision: guilty. McCullough was sentenced to life in prison. On-screen text graphic: Clay Campbell won the case, but in November 2012, he lost his bid for re-election. Interviewed: Maria Ridulph's childhood friend Kathy Chapman; Maria Ridulph's brother Chuck Ridulph; Patrick Solar, retired Sycamore Police Lieutenant; the sisters of suspect John Tessier/Ray McCullough: Jeanne Tessier and Jan Tessier; Special Agent Brion Hanley; suspect Jack McCullough (a.k.a. John Tessier); Prosecutor Clay Campbell; Seattle cold-case detectives Mike Ciesynski and Cloyd Steiger; McCullough's step-daughter Janey O'Connor; Tacoma bartender/former 14-year-old runaway Michelle Weinman; defense investigator Crystal Harrole. Crime

"Ambushed" - a report on the investigation into the 1988 disappearance of David Jackson in Pembroke Pines, Florida; the eventual discovery of his body; and of the efforts of the young man who helped police find his father's killer. In 1988, David Jackson disappeared, but the case grew cold. In 2003, the case was re-opened with Detective Donna Velazquez in charge. By chance, Police Explorer recruit John Wolfe saw a poster and shocked police by stating that the man pictured was his father. Wolfe told investigators that he felt his mother, Barbara Britton, was holding back information about the crime and agreed to work with the police. Their investigation revealed: (1) the couple had married young, divorced and shared custody of their child; (2) Barbara married Michael Wolfe and relocated to Arizona; (3) Jackson fought and won visitation rights; (4) Jackson's father-in-law Harry Britton hated him. Detective Velazquez was convinced that Jackson was murdered and that his ex-wife had something to do with it -- and if she was involved, so was Michael Wolfe. Wolfe was arrested. During the interrogation he said that Barbara's father had wanted Jackson dead and had turned to him for advice about killing him. Both of Wolfe's ex-wives, Nancy Graham and Carole Larson, corroborated this information. Britton could not be arrested because all the information collected was considered hearsay. At trial, Michael Wolfe was convicted of murder. He then promised prosecutors evidence that would put Barbara Britton away. He told a story of how she and her father were deeply involved in the planning of the murder and that he had agreed to kill David Jackson to keep peace in the family. A few months later, Britton left him and filed for child support. Twenty-two years after Jackson's disappearance, Barbara Britton was arrested for murder. To avoid prison, she ultimately accepted a plea bargain to a reduced charge because the District Attorney recognized that they would probably not be able to obtain a first-degree murder conviction. On screen text graphic: Despite the plea deal John Wolfe continues to support his mother, Barbara. He is estranged from his grandmother, Judy. John still hopes to be a police officer. He currently work as a security guard at a Florida shopping mall. Michael Wolfe, who offered to testify about Barbara's involvement in David Jackson's murder, never got the reduced sentence he was hoping for. Interviewed: the brother and mother of David Jackson -- Mark Jackson and Judy Carlsson; former wife/defendant Barbara Britton; Det. Donna Velazquez; the son of David Jackson and Barbara Britton, John Wolfe; former wife of Michael Wolfe, Nancy Graham; defendant Michael Wolfe; Barbara Britton's defense attorney Keith Seltzer. 48 HOURS: "Murder In The OC" - a revised and updated rebroadcast on the 1994 murder of millionaire businessman Bill McLaughlin in his Newport Beach, California home. After his divorce, he became involved with the much-younger Nanette Johnston, who it was later discovered, made a habit of seeking out wealthy men to date. Nanette Johnston's alibi did not exactly check out: she had been at her son's soccer game with another man, Eric Naposki. Police referred to him as Nanette's boyfriend. In his first on-camera interview, Naposki, once a professional football player for the NFL, said that Nanette Johnston was his girlfriend in 1994, and he had his own plans of marrying her. Though he was a suspect, police never had enough to bring the case to trial. Nanette was charged with theft, pleaded guilty, served some time, and then married and divorced several very wealthy men. Naposki moved on with his life. In 2009, police called the family and told them they had arrested Nanette Johnson Packard McNeill and Eric Naposki for the murder. With no fingerprints or DNA, Orange County Deputy District Attorney Matt Murphy had no problem with Naposki's attorneys blaming Johnston, but still believes Naposki pulled the trigger. The jury convicted Naposki of murder. 10/29/11 On Screen Text Graphic: Nanette Johnston sued the McLaughlin family soon after his murder for money she felt she was entitled to. They settled for $220,000. Eric Naposki's lawyers have filed to overturn his conviction. They argue favorable evidence was lost because prosecutors waited so long to file charges. The 05/29/12 update included: At trial, Nanette Johnston was found guilty of murder. After his own conviction, Eric Naposki contacted 48 HOURS with information which he said would reveal who really killed Bill McLaughlin. After pouring over evidence while incarcerated, he believes that Nanette arranged a hit for $50,000 with a Hollywood producer he had done business with and introduced her to. Police have investigated, but they consider the producer an unlikely suspect. Nanette Johnston was recently sentenced to life in prison. Naposki continues his appeal. 05/29/12 On Screen Text Graphic: Eric Naposki is now scheduled to be sentenced in August. The 03/23/13 updated included: the sentencing hearing in which Naposki was given life in prison without the possibility of parole. 3/23/13 On Screen Text Graphic: Eric Naposki is appealing his conviction. Crime

48 HOURS: "The Writing on the Wall" - a report on the investigation into the May 5, 2009 murders of the wife and two children of Christopher Coleman, the security chief for televangelist Joyce Meyer Ministries. In Columbia, Illinois on the morning of May 5, Coleman called his neighbor, police detective Justin Barlow, and asked him to check on his wife, Sheri, and their two young sons, Gavin and Garrett, after his own calls had gone unanswered. In months prior he had made local police aware of explicit death threats he was receiving regarding his involvement in Meyer's ministry. Barlow entered the house that morning through an unlocked basement window and upon entry he found spray-painted messages on the walls, with the phrases "you have paid" and "punished", and when he went upstairs he discovered the bodies of Coleman's family strangled to death in each of their beds. An investigation began and soon after police discovered Coleman was having a serious affair with cocktail waitress Tara Lintz, a high school friend of Sheri's. Sheri's friends came to her defense telling police Sheri said her husband was having an affair and if anything happened to her, Chris did it. Moreover, the crime scene lab found the handwriting on the wall matched up to Coleman's script. Two weeks after the murders police had enough evidence to charge Coleman with first-degree murder of his family. The trial for Coleman began two years later and the prosecution's computer experts discovered the e-mail threats came from Coleman's laptop, and one can of the spray paint used on the walls of his house was purchased at a local hardware store with a computerized signature linked to Coleman. The jury needed more evidence though, and it came from one of the jurors who noticed the date on a picture of Coleman and Lintz kissing which proved Coleman lied to them about when the affair began. After a guilty verdict, the judge sentenced Coleman to life in prison. 48 HOURS MYSTERY spoke to Coleman by phone and he denied planning to divorce Sheri to marry his mistress and said he did not know who murdered his family. On Screen Text Graphics: Sheri's family is suing Joyce Meyer Ministries. They claim the murders might have been prevented if the Ministries had investigated the threats more seriously. May 5th is the three-year anniversary of the murders of Sheri, Garrett and Gavin Coleman. 03/30/13 updated On Screen Text Graphics: in December 2012, after a long legal battle with the Colemans, Sheri's family was allowed to rebury Sheri and her sons in a cemetery closer to their home in Chicago. Interviewed: Chris Coleman; Justin Barlow, detective; Joe Edwards, Columbia Police Chief; Major Jeff Connor, Major Case Squad, St. Louis; Vanessa Riegerix, neighbor; Nick Pistor, St. Louis Post-Dispatch reporter; Kathy LaPlante, Sheri's friend; Angela DiCiccio, Sheri's mother; Meegan Turnbeaugh, Sheri's friend; Connie and Ron Coleman; Chris' parents; Ed Parkinson, prosecutor; Bill Margulis, Chris's lawyer; Gina West, juror; Olivia Shopinski, juror; Jonece Pearman, jury foreperson. Alabama Broadcasters Association – “No Courts, No Justice, No Freedom” is dedicated to promoting the professional responsibility, competence and satisfaction of its members; improving the administration of justice and increasing public understanding and respect of the law.

Alabama Broadcasters Association - “Law Day 2013” - The 17,000-member Alabama State Bar is dedicated to promoting the professional responsibility, competence and satisfaction of its members; improving the administration of justice, and: increasing public understanding and respect for the law.

National Crime Prevention – “Intellectual Property” – The National Crime Prevention Council, in partnership with the Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs and U.S. Department of Justice, has launched a campaign against intellectual property theft. These ads encourage the public not to buy counterfeit items, and show ways how the innocent are exploited.

Economic:

Alabama State Bar Association – “Foreclosures” is reminding viewers that attorney’s across the state provide free services to individuals and families in need each year for people facing foreclosures.

US Department of Energy - “Energy Efficiency” which is to raise awareness amongst viewers that by saving energy they can save money.

The Advertising Council – “Armored Car” addresses Financial Literacy.

U.S. Marines – “For Us All” For more than 235 years the men and women of the United States Marines Corps have made a commitment to defend the American way of life. They are from your city, your hometown, your nation. No matter where their mission takes them, they remain faithful to protecting the place they call home. Every day they take a stand – for pride of the nation; for country; for us all.

Education:

US Department of Agriculture, Food Safety Inspection Services – “Food Safety Education” focuses on raising awareness of the risks of food poisoning and to motivate consumers to take action to reduce their personal risk of food poisoning and achieve safe handling behaviors.

Arbor Day Foundation “New Replanting in our National Forests” – shows the importance of educating Americans how we depend on our National Forests for clean air, wood for our homes, drinking water and how replanting the trees that have been devastated by insects, disease and fires have destroyed the trees and replanting them depends on what we do today.

Ad Council – “Mentoring-Big Brothers Big Sisters” There are over 75,000,000 children in the US, and nearly 10,000,000 of them are at risk. What if every child was sent on the right path? What if every child stayed in school? Got a job? Gave back to the community? What if every child’s potential was fulfilled? The Ad Council in partnership with Big Brothers/Big Sisters developed these PSAs which urge people to make an impact in the lives of children and start something today at BigBrothersBigSisters.org.

Montgomery County Family & Juvenile Truancy “The Truancy Intervention Program (TIP)”, administered by the Helping Montgomery Families Initiative, was piloted at Davis Elementary, E.D. Nixon Elementary and Bellingrath Middle schools. It will be now be expanded to all MPS schools. This expansion is important because TIP requires families to be accountable by providing a supportive system that helps families keep their child in school. TIP is a collaborative effort by school officials, law enforcement and social services agencies to intervene in the lives of students who do not regularly attend school.

Employment:

Alabama Broadcasters Association – This campaign is designed to attract reservists. Because Alabama is a coastal state, there is a great opportunity for persons to serve in the Coast Guard Reserve. The “Workout” campaign also aired.

Alabama Broadcasters Association – “Alabama National Guard” Tells about opportunities for employment and to serve in Alabama’s National Guard.

Health:

Boys Town – “Teen PSA” speak to the power of improving difficult situations in your life by making one small change at a time.

The Advertising Council “Lead Poisoning Prevention” helps us to encourage parents to know their home’s lead danger zones and get their children tested during Lead Poisoning Prevention Week and beyond.

The Advertising Council – “Every Beat Matters” – engages the American public in a movement supporting the work of front line health workers who deliver lifesaving care to millions of children around the world.

Ad Council – “Buzzed Driving is Drunk Driving” Make sure you make responsible choices that don’t endanger yourself and others. Take the pledge.

Ad Council – “Autism Awareness” - BBDO, the agency for the Autism Awareness campaign, created a video case study to highlight the effectiveness of the award-winning PSAs. Since the launch of the campaign, parents are 160% more likely to be aware of the prevalence of Autism and 93% are more likely to recognize at least one key sign of Autism.

Ad Council – “Caregiver Assistance” Family support is critical to the care needed for older adults as they age, but often comes at substantial costs to those providing the care, to their families and to society. This PSA raises awareness about available resources are available; it connect caregivers with others who can be supportive; and it encourage them to call or visit a website for more information.

Ad Council – “Newborn & Child Survival” – Every year, approximately 7 million children in the developing world die of largely preventable or treatable causes before they reach the age of 5. This campaign engages the American public in a movement supporting the work of front line health workers who deliver lifesaving care to millions of children around the world.

Ad Council – “New Odds 1 in 88” – This ad compares the odds of a person achieving everything that some of their role models have achieved to the odds of having a child diagnosed with Autism (1 to 88) and encourages the parents to learn the signs of Autism. Early diagnosis can make a lifetime of difference. Toni Braxton, Ernie Els, Tommy Hilfiger, and Jamie McMurray are stars featured in these PSAs.

American Association of Orthopedic Surgeons – “Joints Don’t Jump” Joint pain affects the quality of life for millions nationwide. Viewers are encouraged to seek information from orthoinfo.org to keep healthy joints healthy and make sore joints feel good again.

Health and Human Services – “The Most Important of All”; “Succeed in Life” – Studies show that physical activity not only helps kids stay healthy . . . it can enhance important skills like concentration and problem solving, which can improve academic performance.

National Meningitis Association – “Get Vaccinated” The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and other leading medical groups recommend vaccination for preteens, teens, and college freshmen living in dorms to protect them from meningococcal meningitis, a deadly disease. Yet many parents are unaware of these recommendations.

Ad Council – “Let’s Move” First Lady Michelle Obama’s Let’s Move! Initiative has an ambitious but important goal: to solve the epidemic of childhood obesity within a generation. Let’s move employs a comprehensive approach set to engage every sector of society impacting the health of children and will provide schools, families and communities simple tools to help kids be active, eat better, and get healthy.

Share Our Strength – “No Kid Hungry” – Nearly 17,000,000 children in the United States don’t have reliable access to the food they need to lead healthy, active lives. Our kids aren’t hungry because we lack food or because of a lack of food and nutrition programs. They are hungry because they lack access to the nutritious foods they need to grow and thrive.
